

GRACENOTES

BUILDING ANEW FOR 2010

February 1, 2010

Late Breaking News!!!!

The 2010 PAM
Westminster
Brochure is now online at the PAM web site

A NEW SONG

~~~~~
Lynne Williams, 2010 Conference Chair announced today on Facebook the 2010 Westminster Conference Brochure is now available on the PAM web site. It will be in the mail, shortly.

Please note that the beautiful newly refurbished PAM web site's address is:

<http://www.presbymusic.org/>

This may be different that what you have previously bookmarked. If you are on Facebook, join our page!

~~~~~
All you need to know about the conference presenters, dates, theme and registration information is on line now. If you do not want to wait for the brochure to arrive in the mail, you can go to the PAM web site and register safely and securely on line. There are even three price points for very early, early and last minute registration as an added incentive to register early.

~~~~~
If you have been waiting for all of the information before deciding how you can spread the word in your area, NOW IS THE TIME! There is a revised one page flyer that you can duplicate for distribution attached as a separate pdf file. It will successfully copy in black and white only with out loosing any of the detail. This version debuted at the January Philadelphia Presbytery meeting and was available on the Meeting materials table . It is eye catching and, as I have found, pastors and commissioners to Presbytery pick up everything.

Please consider how you can help spread the word to make this the biggest and best Westminster conference ever.

Just to remind you, here is the "To Do List" again -

TO DO LIST

- contact my Presbytery
- place information at my Presbytery meeting
- place information in my Presbyteries newsletter or e-mail communications
- get the Westminster Conference listed on the Coming Events section of my Presbyteries web site
- share conference information with my local AGO chapter, it's newsletter, at a meeting, or on their web site
- share conference information with my local Chorister's Guild group
- organize a group of youth to experience the conference (a group of adults, too?)
- invite my pastor (tell them they don't have to preach, can sing, and bring along their tuba)
- find someone who might benefit from the Westminster experience and invite them and take them under my wing for the week.
- get the one page flyer, copy it and pass it out
- Let Lynne Williams or Bob Miller know how I can help spread the word.

It's crunch time!

Time to make plans for your summer vacation or continuing education opportunities.

While the conference information is on the PAM web site and is mailed to PAM members and recent conference attendees, there are many others out there who have not heard what a great conference we have. Please consider how YOU can spread the word.

If you need some help with how to make contact in your Presbytery and maybe your pastor has not been much help, contact me. I serve on a Presbytery committee and have some first hand experience with the what and who to ask when you are trying to make contact

Bob Miller

Again, feel free to pass this on! I know there are more friends of the conference out there that I do not know how to contact, so spread the word and forward this on!

To contact Lynne Williams: gpwlew@verizon.net

Note, this is a new e-mail address for her, if you have another one please use this one now.

To contact Bob Miller: robm35@earthlink.net

